Youth stabbed to death during clash

One more youth critical; three arrested over petty dispute

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (RK&BCT)- A petty dispute led to a murder of a 26-year-old youth on Chamaraja Double Road last night. Police said that it was a brawl between two groups over a long-standing issue over land and the people involved in the clash had consumed alcohol at a local bar.

The murdered youth has been identified as Srigandha (26), a resident of Kakarawadi behind Chamaraja Double Road, who was stabbed by one more youth, 28-year-old Ravi, a resident of Nala Beedhi in K.R. Market.

During the stabbing, Ravi also sustained injuries on his stomach as Srigandha attacked him and has been admitted to a private hospital in Devaraja Mohalla. According to the doctors, Ravi's condition is said to be critical. Three persons, Ravi's father Ramesh and Ravi's friends Mujeeb and Harish alias Dood, have been arrested.

According to the Krishnaraja Police who have registered a case, there was a long-standing dispute over property between the family of Ramesh and Srigandha. Late last evening, Ravi's father Ramesh reportedly assaulted Srigandha with his hands near his house when the latter was loitering around.

Just 10 minutes later, Srigandha spotted Ravi on Chamaraja Double Road and picked up a fight with Ravi as the latter's father had assaulted him. In a fit of rage, Srigandha drew a knife and stabbed Ravi in his abdomen. Trying to resist further attack, a bleeding Ravi drew the knife he was carrying on him and repeatedly stabbed Srigandha in his stomach and chest.

Hearing about the fight in the middle of the road, Ravi's friends Mujeeb and Harish rushed to the rescue of their friend and the Police said that they too were part of the clash.

The horrifying incident occurred last night in full public view. Srigandha collapsed and died on the spot while an injured Ravi was admitted to a private hospital in Devaraja Mohalla by his friends and passers-by.

Police said that before the clash, Srigandha, Ravi, Mujeeb and Harish were spotted consuming liquor at a local bar. Both Srigandha and Ravi were carrying lethal weapons and cases will be booked accordingly.

As Ravi is recuperating, he will be arrested later, the Police said. A murder case has been registered and investigations are on.

Munirathna drops movie 'Uri Gowda-Nanje Gowda'

Minister and film producer Munirathna meeting Adichunchanagiri Mutt Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji in Mandya this morning.

Mandya, Mar. 20 (Mohan Raj &BCT)- Minister and film producer Munirathna, who had recently registered the movie title 'Uri Gowda-Nanje Gowda' with the Karnataka Film Chamber of Commerce, has done a U-turn this morning and announced that he will not make the movie.

This announcement came after Munirathna met Adichunchanagiri Mutt Seer Sri Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji in Mandya this morning. Munirathna had registered the movie title — based on Vokkaliga chieftains — under his production house Vrushabhavati Productions.

The announcement of the movie led to a political slugfest in the Mysuru region over the claim that Uri Gowda and Nanje Gowda were the brave warriors who killed Tipu Sultan.

The movie, for which the shooting was supposed to begin on May 18, assumed great significance due to the Assembly elections which are around the corner.

Munirathna has produced big-budget movies like 'Kurukshetra' and 'Raktha Kaneeru', and was facing the heat for registering the title.

Finally, heritage toilet inaugurated in city

Member of the District Heritage Committee Prof. N.S. Rangaraju (fifth from left) along with Namma Mysuru Foundation Trustees and other office-bearers in front of the heritage toilet in Town Hall this morning.

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (RK&DM)- Two-and-a-half-years after the foundation stone was laid for the hi-tech heritage-style toilet, the facility was inaugurated this morning. The toilet has been built in the Town Hall (Rangacharlu Memorial Hall) premises facing Gandhi Square, the first of its kind in the city.

The Mysuru City Corporation collaborated with the Namma Mysuru Foundation (NMF) to build the modern facility at a cost of Rs. 1.4 crore with an aim to provide freedom from stinky toilets. Mysuru District Minister S.T. Somashekar and the then-city Mayor Tasneem laid the Foundation stone for the toilet on Sept. 28, 2020. The works moved at a snail's pace due to the COVID-19 and other factors.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The one thing we all dread in life is the prospect of having to face suffering in any form, whether perceived or actual, whether it is hurdles of any kind, dislocation, ill health, indisposition, life altering changes, roadblocks, or even having to deal with difficult people — you get the drift. Sometimes the suffering may actually be intolerable, but on occasion, we imbue the thought of it with more intensity than is warranted.

Suffering in life is a given. There is no escaping it. Even our gods went through suffering. Lord Rama, who was banished to the forest; Jesus, who was nailed to the cross; and Krishna, who was whisked away as soon as he was born. Our freedom fighters suffered for the sake of the country. Whistleblowers pay the price with their lives. Good souls suffer in the process of helping others in distress. Sportsperson Arunima Sinha lay on the railway track writhing in pain till help arrived, went through major surgeries, and eventually conquered new frontiers. So, the sooner we learn to deal with suffering, the better off we will be.

Suffering steels and strengthens us emotionally and mentally, which is why some seers tell us to welcome it. What we should learn is to face suffering stoically, acquire coping strategies, cultivate faith, and never lose hope. While going through a difficult phase, transmute your pain and turn your focus towards achieving something nobler and greater. Perhaps that is the reason you are putting yourself through suffering.

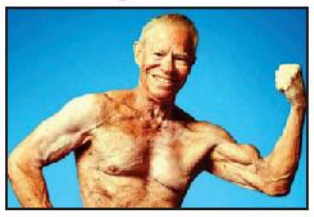
The world's oldest male bodybuilder



California: 90-year-old Jim Arrington got into bodybuilding when he was 13 years old, and he has been keeping at it ever since. At 90 years old, he holds the Guinness World Record for "oldest active male bodybuilder".

Jim Arrington discovered bodybuilding when he was 13. He walked into a drug store and saw these big, bulky guys on the cover of a muscle magazine. He immediately ordered a copy of a 25-cent book by George Jowett, a Canadian strongman, and started doing the exercises detailed in it using his father's three-pound steel balls. They certainly weren't the most useful bodybuilding tools, but they helped him put on more than 10 pounds of muscle in a few months, so he kept going. He has been going at it ever since, and even though his body is much more fragile now, at age 90, he has no plans of ever stopping weight training.

He has been walking barefoot for over 20 years

Norwalk: Joseph DeRuvo Jr., from Norwalk, Connecticut, gave up on footwear over two decades ago, after getting painful bunions on his feet, and he has been walking around barefoot ever since.

59-year-old Joseph DeRuvo Jr. doesn't remember the exact day he decided to shun footwear. He had developed bunions on both feet, which hurt when he went jogging in tight running shoes. A doctor recommended surgery, but before being scheduled for the procedure, Joseph decided to go barefoot because the pain in his feet was so intense. As he considered the surgery, DeRuvo Jr. learned that the screws that were to be inserted into his feet contained a metal he was allergic to and he also realised that he was feeling much better. In the end, he passed on the surgery and decided to adopt a barefoot lifestyle.

Stop beggar menace in city and ORR

Sir,

Of late, I have been observing that the beggars throng vehicles at almost all the traffic signals. Persons with disability, women, old aged people, women with child in their arms are found begging at most of the traffic junctions within Mysuru city and Outer Ring Road (ORR). This is a black mark on the prestigious city.

Now, the Government has implemented various schemes including 'Anna Bhagya', Indira Canteen, Pension Scheme, etc., besides a host of shelter homes run by philanthropic organisations. Further, a willing person including aged can earn their livelihoods by engaging in minor/part-time job as domestic help, which has a good demand.

But, it appears that an organised gang is operating behind begging racket. The District Administration should take strict action to stop this menace. Otherwise it will definitely dent the image of the city and result in adverse impact on commerce.

Forum to take out rally tomorrow

To demand re-introduction of Old Pension Scheme

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (MTY&DM)- Seeking scrapping of New Pension Scheme (NPS) and restoration of Old Pension Scheme (OPS), the OPS Restoration Joint Action Forum will take out a massive protest rally in city tomorrow (Mar. 21).

Announcing this at a press meet here on Friday, the Forum office-bearer Shivaprakash said that the rally will be taken out from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple at the Palace North Gate to the Deputy Commissioner's (DC) office, where a demonstration will be held.

Maintaining that the life of retired Government servants was smooth under the OPS, Shivaprakash contended that the NPS is confusing and is against the interests of pensioners. Several representations and protests urging the Government to restore OPS has gone in vain. As such, all the Unions of State and Central Government Employees have come together and formed the Forum to take forward the cause of OPS.

The Forum will take out a rally in all district headquarters of the State on Mar. 21 and submit a memorandum to the DCs in the first phase, he said adding that the future course of action will be chalked out if the Government does not consider their demand.

Continuing, Shivaprakash said that following protests, the States of Jharkhand, Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh, Punjab and Himachal Pradesh have reintroduced the OPS after scrapping NPS. However, the Centre has no plans to scrap NPS, which has bothered the working class, he said adding that the Forum also plans to hold a series of protests regarding the issue.

Forum Office-bearers Somegowda, Arthur Fernandes, Somashekar, Tulajappa Nadagatti, D. Shivaparakash, Pavitran and others were present.

Water crisis grips Chamundi Hill

Works to lay new pipeline stopped since three years

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (MK&KS)- With the works to lay new pipeline to supply adequate drinking water atop Chamundi Hill coming to a standstill since three years, the decades-old acute water scarcity problem atop Chamundi Hill is haunting the residents of the Hill this summer too.

A mega drinking water project that was sanctioned in July 2017 was implemented in 2019 at the foot and atop Chamundi Hill by Karnataka Urban Water Supply and Drainage Board (KUWS&DB). The Rs. 6.95 crore project was to cater the demands of population growth and the devotees visiting the Hill till 2050.

But the works to lay new pipeline stopped three years ago and about 2,000 people residing in 500 to 600 houses atop the Hill are now reeling under severe shortage of water.

There are four water tanks constructed in the multi-level parking building and not a drop of water can be seen in these tanks. Due to summer, there are chances of fire atop the Hill and with severe shortage of water, it has become difficult for fire extinguishing vehicles to refill the tanks with water when they arrive to douse fire, said a staff manning the parking lot.

A Fire and Emergency Services Department staff said that a forest fire took place a few days ago atop Chamundi Hill and we found it difficult to douse the fire. "When we connected the pipes to douse the fire by drawing water from the tanks in the multi-level parking building, there was not a single drop of water in the tank. We had to fetch water from the foot of the Hill, which delayed the extinguishing operation. If water is made available atop the Hill, it will be easy for us to refill tanks and prevent fire from spreading further," the staff added.

"The works to replace the previous six inches pipeline with 12 inches pipeline was taken up and most of the works have been completed except for 250 mts. near Rajendra Vilas Palace atop the Hill. As we did not get the permission to lay the new pipeline, the works have been stopped. If permission is given and the works get completed, there will be no problem for water atop Chamundi Hill," said an Engineer of Ports & Inland Water Transport Department.

He further said that water would be pumped from the pumping station at the foot of the Hill to the tank near Nandi statue and using another pump, water from the tank will be pumped atop the Hill.

"There are Ground-Level Reservoirs constructed atop the Hill and there is an increase in the number of devotees visiting the Temple during Ashada maasa every year. With scarcity of water, devotees are also facing the problem," the Engineer said.

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (TRR)- "Officials of the District Administration have come to your village. Tell them your problems and get them solved. Officials should solve the problems of the citizens at the earliest," said Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda.

He was speaking after inaugurating 'Jilladhikarigala Nade Halliya Kade' programme organised by the District Administration at Kallur Naganahalli village Yelwal Hobli of Mysuru taluk on Saturday.

Exhorting officials to solve the problems, grievances and complaints received by the villagers during the programme quickly, the MLA asked the Hosakote Hospital Doctor to visit Kalur village at least once in a week and conduct health check-ups to the needy. He also asked KSRTC officials to arrange buses at prescribed time for students to commute easily to their schools and colleges.

MLA also directed officials to solve the problems of garbage disposal, power distribution, grants to build houses for poor people and also other problems related to lands of the farmers and the other public problems of Anandur village.

Tahsildar Girish, who too spoke, asked all the youngsters above 18 years to get their Voter Id cards. "If any corrections to be made in the Voter ID, then visit to the nearest GramOne Centre. For other information relating to Voter Id cards, people can call Voter Helpline Toll Free No: 1950," he said.

Stating that of late, people of rural area are getting attracted to urban life, Girish opined that rural life is better and more peaceful than urban life. Everyone should develop human values and a life without values is a waste.

"Parents must not pamper their children instead make them a responsible citizen," he suggested and asked villagers to visit GramOne Centres to avail Government facilities instead of seeking help from middlemen.

At the meeting, with District officials, the villagers aired their grievances by submitting applications. Their problems covered a wide of range of issues including drinking water problem, power connections, land encroachment issue, street light, letter of cultivation, land seeking houses under Ashraya Scheme, Khata for their houses and among others.

Additional Deputy Commissioner Kavitha Rajaram, Deputy Director of Land Records Department Meghana, Panchayat Development Officer Girish and Taluk-level officials of various Departments and villagers participated in the programme.

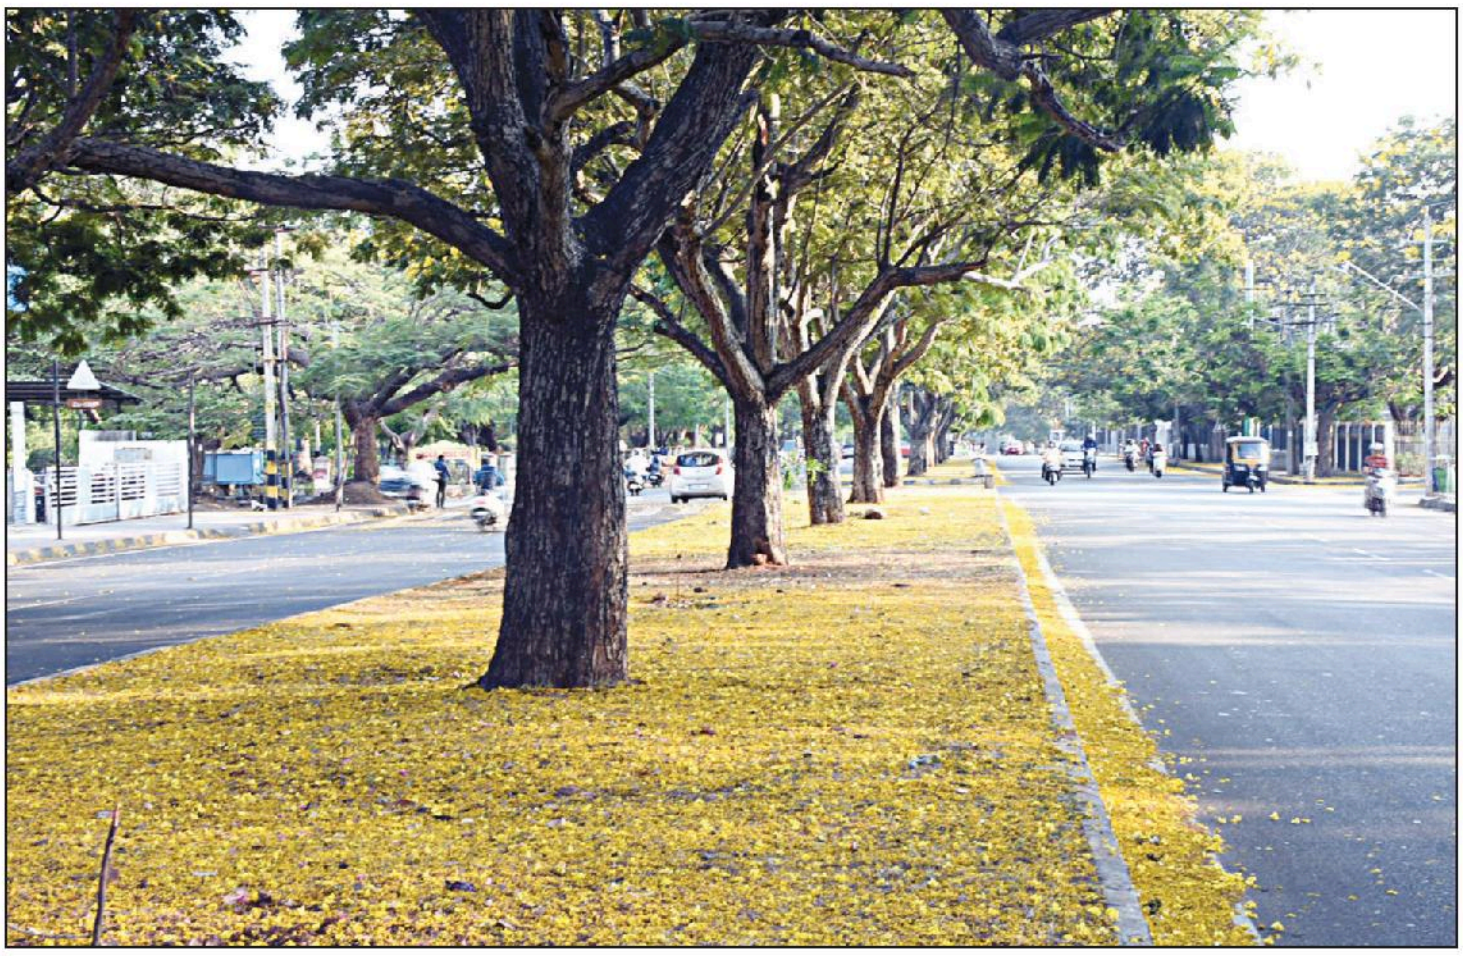
Flavour of the season



One cannot miss the fragments of beauty strewn around Krishnaraja Boulevard in Mysuru city even during the rush to carry on the business of life. Come April, the city's streets, roadsides and grounds of parks are strewn with yellow flowers. These flowers not only cover the tree with a colourful halo but are strewn on the ground beneath the trees to form a radiant carpet of bright gold. The tree (Peltophorum pterocarpum) also called the Yellow Poinciana or copper pod tree, is found in large numbers with a spectacular display of brilliant yellow blossoms. The flowering season commences at the end of February and reaches its peak in the middle of April. [Pic. by M.N. Lakshminarayana Yadav]

Competitions, workshop mark World Sparrow Day in city

Mysuru, Mar. 20 (SSM) - An awareness event titled "I am still alive. Help me," to save sparrows in urban space, marking the World Sparrow Day, was organised jointly by Jeev Daya Jain Charity and People For Animals (PFA) at CITB Choultry, opposite MRC Eye Hospital, Siddarthanagar in city yesterday.

World Sparrow Day is celebrated on Mar. 20 every year and yesterday, an event was organised to celebrate the day of the most ubiquitous bird on our planet, which is one of the oldest companions of human beings.

This year, the World Sparrow Day-2023 event was organised with the theme 'I Love Sparrows' and the main aim of the day is to convey the message of conservation of House Sparrows and other common birds.

Several activities marked the event to raise awareness about House Sparrow (Passer domesticus) and the challenges and danger it is facing.

As many as 35 students, despite exam season, attended the awareness event enthusiastically and participated in a leaf craft competition organised for children aged between 10 and 14 years on animals and birds and a painting contest for those aged 15 to 18 years on the topic of sparrow conservation.

A video on sparrow conservation created and easily narrated by Jeev Daya Jain Charity Founder-Person Kokila Jain was screened. The video was all about how the population of House Sparrow that was once the most common bird in the ecosystem has declined over the past few years in both rural and urban habitats.

The narrator explains about the reason for their decline in population due to increase in pollution, urbanisation, vanishing ecological resources, global warming and electromagnetic radiation released by mobile, internet and TV signals.

Sparrow Board Game

A Sparrow Board Game similar to 'Snake and Ladder Game' designed by Kokila Jain was released by Deputy Mayor Dr. G. Roopa, who was the chief guest for the day. The Sparrow Board Game is similar to the Snake and Ladder game where Sparrows fall down if they come in contact with mobile, Telephone or TV signals (similar to a person who comes down when he is bit by a snake). The Sparrow is safe only if it finds a tree or a water pond where it can rest.

'I'm still alive Save Me' photo booth

'I'm still alive. Save Me," a photo booth was installed at the venue with messages to create awareness about the need of sparrow conservation. Speaking to Star of Mysore Kokila Jain said that as most of the people have the habit of clicking pictures, selfies where ever they go, a photo booth was installed specially to attract them to click pictures there where they share among their peer group. "By doing this, it will bring individuals and youngsters interested in conservation of sparrows and urban biodiversity together. Uniting a lot of people for one cause brings a lot of changes in the society and helps in conserving sparrows," she said.

'Do It Yourself'

A workshop 'Do It Yourself' eco-friendly feeders was also organised where the children were taught how to prepare an eco-friendly feeder using a coconut shell. Attractive bird-houses from Gujarat, Rajasthan, Tamil Nadu, Andhra Pradesh and Karnataka were kept on display-cum-sale on the occasion.

WORD OF THE DAY

Scrupulous

Pronunciation: SKROO-pyuh-lus.
Meaning: Scrupulous means "very careful about doing something correctly." It can also mean "careful about doing what is honest & morally right."
Origin: People described as "scrupulous" might feel discomfort in anything that challenges their moral sensibilities. Such challenges might present a nagging feeling, much as a sharp pebble in a shoe might nag a walker intent on getting somewhere. And we are getting somewhere. The origin of scrupulous is founded in just such a pebble. Scrupulous and its close relative scruple ("a feeling that prevents you from doing something that you think is wrong") both come from the Latin noun scrupulus, "a small sharp stone," the diminutive of scrupus, "a sharp stone." Scrupus has a metaphorical meaning too: "a source of anxiety or uneasiness." When the adjective scrupulous entered the English language in the 15th century, it meant "principled," as in "having moral integrity," but it now also commonly means "painstaking" or "careful."
Example: "In the Oscar-nominated film 'Everything Everywhere All at Once,' a Chinese-American couple (played by Michelle Yeoh and Ke Huy Quan) with a failing laundromat face a tax audit, meeting a scrupulous agent (played by Jamie Lee Curtis) at an IRS office to review stacks of business receipts." — Kate Dore

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Sailing close to the wind

Meaning: To sail close to the wind is to take a risky course of action - on the edge of law-breaking or calamity. In its original sailing meaning, to sail close to the wind means to steer the boat as near as possible to the direction the wind is coming from.
Origin: The expression 'Close to the wind' has been known in sailing circles for centuries. It is first recorded in Captain John Smith's training manual for sailors, A Sea Grammar 1627. This piece, in the language of the English Stuart court, explains the ins and outs of sailing close to the wind: If you would saile against the wind or keepe your owne, that is, not to fall to lee-ward or goe backe againe, by halling off close your Bolings, you set your sailes so sharp as you can to lie close by a wind, thwarting it a league or two, or more or lesse, as you see cause, first on the one board then on the other; this we call boarding or beating it up upon a tacke in the winds eye, or bolting to and againe; but the longer your boards are, the more you worke or gather into the wind. If a sudden flaw of wind should surprise you, when you would lower a yard so fast as you can, they call A maine; but a crosse saile cannot come neerer the wind than six points.
